

Girl Scouts of New Mexico Trails

Family Traditions

A green trefoil shape, which is a three-lobed emblem, is centered on a white background. Inside the trefoil, the text "Traditions give Girl Scouts a sense of history—and inspire them to be the best they can be." is written in a black, sans-serif font.

Traditions give Girl Scouts a sense of history—and inspire them to be the best they can be.

Family dinners are important family traditions.
We come together to celebrate special occasions and enjoy each other's company. We know which family member makes the best dishes and ask each other to make them. Food and good conversation is our family tradition

~ Clarissa Yatsattie, NM Trails' staff member

On New Year's Day, we have ice cream sundaes for breakfast for one of our family traditions.

~Sarah Deal, Troop Leader,
Troop 10625

The youngest child always has to make the fruit salad
for Thanksgiving and Christmas by themselves.

~Sarah Deal, Troop Leader,
Troop 10625

Family time! Now that my oldest has moved out, I try to take group pictures whenever I can!

~Carly Burnham, Troop Leader,
Troop 10471

One of my family traditions is to head back to Ohio and spend time with our extended family. All 15 of us get together at least once a year, and most of the time, this is at Thanksgiving. Since it's my dad's favorite holiday, we love to gather together, eat our traditional fixin's, and be with each other as a family.

~Melissa Bruney, NM Trails' staff member