Each year, the World Association of Girl Guides & Girl Scouts hosts the Helen Storrrows . This annual international event is a unique opportunity for leadership development, as it addresses one of the most relevant issues in contemporary society - environmental sustainability. 35 – 40 participants join us in Switzerland for an intensive seven-day seminar of adventure and leadership practice. The seminar explores the environmental issues of today, focuses on ways to raise awareness and use practical skills to create sustainable change. Attendees leave with a change plan ready to impact their environment at a local level.

Participants must be:

- An active member of GSUSA
- Age 18-25 years old by October 30, 2026
- Be available to travel to Adelboden Switzerland from January 23-27, 2027
- Able to understand and communicate well in one of the following: Arabic, English, French, or Spanish.
- Not have participated in any WAGGGS seminar before
- Be passionate about sustainable energy and environmental sustainability
- Be committed to designing and running an environmental project in your wider community.
- Be committed to hosting a GSUSA amplification project to share your experience with your community.
- Be eager to develop new leadership skills and support their Association
- Be a mature and responsible global citizen
